

Bleichert Vertical Roller Conveyor

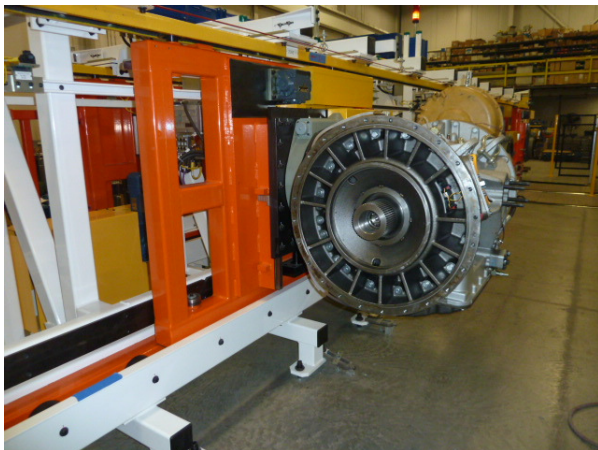

Bleichert Standard

Description

- Track mounted, vertical assembly and transport conveyor ideal for manual part assembly.
- Ergonomic access on all sides of the part/pallet.
- Conveyor can be accumulating via friction clutch or indexing via belt to belt.
- Engineered to handle part/tooling weights of up to 2000kg or more per pallet depending on the application.
- Variable selection of rollers to suit the application .
- Minimal downtime, low maintenance design.
- No lubrication required.
- Unlimited conveyor length depending on the application.
- Variable speeds up to 45 fpm.
- Conveyor can be loaded/unloaded manually or via robot.
- Modular conveyor section consists of steel or aluminium channel side frames with side guides (optional), top rail guide track, drive motor, rollers, belts (if applicable), and safety covers.
- Available accessory devices such as turntables, precision locate units for automatic stations, lifting units, side shuttles, and pallet/skid shot pins.

Bleichert Vertical Roller Conveyor

Vertical Roller Conveyor on Turntable

